ABOUT AIL, MOHALI

The Army Institute of Law (AIL, Mohali) was established in July, 1999 by the Indian Army under the aegis of the Army Welfare Education Society (AWES). The Institute is affiliated to Punjabi University, Patiala and approved by the Bar Council of India. It conducts five-year BA.LL.B and one year LL.M. course.

INTRODUCTION

In the pursuit of academic and professional excellence, we are thrilled to present an enriching Faculty Development Program (FDP) in collaboration of IQAC, Army Institute of Law, Mohali that will delve into the intricacies of "The Interplay of Laws and Justice in Society." This program, aims to explore the dynamic relationship between legal frameworks and the pursuit of justice within the societal context.

This online FDP delivery plan ensures a comprehensive exploration of the interplay between laws and justice in society, covering legal frameworks, social justice, ethical considerations, challenges, technological impacts, international perspectives, and strategies for legal reform. Participants will engage in dynamic sessions, discussions, and practical activities to deepen their understanding and contribute to the discourse on achieving justice through legal means.

KEY THEMES TO BE EXPLORED

- Understanding Legal Frameworks
- Justice in Social Context
- Ethics and Morality in Legal Practice
- Challenges to Justice

MODE OF DELIVERY

Recognizing the evolving landscape of education and professional development, this FDP will be conducted entirely online, ensuring accessibility and flexibility for participants from various geographical locations. Through a series of engaging sessions, interactive discussions, workshops, and expert-led presentations, participants will be immersed in a dynamic and collaborative learning environment.

We invite legal professionals, educators and researchers to join us in this intellectual journey, as we explore the symbiotic relationship between law and the intricate tapestry of human society. Get ready to expand your horizons and gain valuable insights that will reshape the way you perceive and engage with the law.
