ABOUT THE CLUB

OBJECTIVES OF THE CLUB

- Promote Environmental Awareness – Educate students and faculty about the importance of protecting nature and adopting sustainable practices.
- Encourage Sustainable Habits – Inspire the campus community to adopt eco-friendly lifestyles such as reducing plastic use, saving water, and conserving energy.
- Waste Management – Promote proper waste segregation, recycling, and reduction of resource wastage.
- Campus Greening – Develop and maintain greenery on campus through plantation drives and nurturing existing plants.
- Combat Pollution – Reduce pollution and environmental hazards through awareness campaigns and practical initiatives.
- Student Participation – Involve students in hands-on activities, events, and competitions that foster responsibility towards the environment.
- Celebrate Environmental Days – Organize events on occasions like World Environment Day, Earth Day, and World Water Day to inspire participation.
- Wellness through Nature – Highlight the connection between a healthy environment and individual well-being.

“The earth is a fine place and worth fighting for.”

- Ernest Hemingway

Constituted on these lines, the Eco Club at Army Institute of Law is a body of resolute students and teachers, committed to bringing about a green reform within the campus.

The club's goal is to create a sustainable ecosystem in the institute, by raising awareness and encouraging eco-friendly habits among students and faculty.

Founded to address all environment-related concerns of the institute, the Eco Club strives to put into action simple yet effective measures to resolve them.

With dedication and collective effort, the club continues to work towards a cleaner, healthier, and greener campus.

It proudly stands by its motto: “Green Hearts, Greener Earth.” 🌿
