1. This is to bring in to your notice that Amit Kumar Giri former student filed an Letter’s Patent Appeal (LPA) No 795/2017 titled as “Amit Kumar Giri V/s Punjabi University and another”. In his petition at page 259 (Annexure P-8), he has annexed a detailed mark sheet i.e. his result for second semester of 5 year law course at Army Institute of Law.

2. As per Institute records, the said student neither filled up examination form nor issued a roll number and consequence thereof he even did not appear in any exam. In these circumstances, it is unlikely that his result would be issued.

3. AIL has not received even his mark list of 1st semester alongwith DMCs of the Batch (Copy of forwarding letter attached at Appx ‘A’).

4. The copy of mark list annexed by Amit Giri apparently issued by Punjabi University is attached with this letter at Appx ‘B’.

5. Kindly verify the mark list at your end so that it can be ascertained as to how this mark list is issued. This point must be taken up by the university through the counsel engaged in the case.

SUBJECT – COMPLAINT AGAINST UNAUTHORIZED CONSTRUCTION
AND ENCROACHMENT BY THE RESIDENTS OF H.NO 400 TO 392

Respected Sir,

1. I am resident of H.No 399 A, Sector 43 A Chandigarh. I wish to bring in your kind notice that residents of H.No 400 to 392 (Ground Floor), Sector – 43 A, Chandigarh Near Sampark Center encroached the front area (Area near the road side) by making Lawn/Garden. The front area of house No 400 is accident prone area and it is covered with bushes and barbed wire, which may cause grievous injuries in case of accident took place at the site.

2. H.No 400 also constructed unauthorized gates alongside the road which may cause serious accidents during their operations of the gates. Due to the unauthorised encroachment of the above mentioned residents all the neighbors are being harassed. Further there is no parking area left for neighbors and in such conditions they have to park their vehicles at the road which has become a matter of concern for all the residents of locality as it is danger to their life.

3. On many occasions I have personally requested resident No 400 to remove the encroachment so that I can park my vehicle easily without causing any problem to others.

4. Hence you are requested to take necessary suitable actions against the residents defaulting who has encroached the land for their person benefits without considering about the other neighbors and residents. By making this area encroachment free as stated above at the earliest in the public interest. Otherwise I will have to opt for other methods to get the appropriate relief.

Along with Gabriel's Annunciation to Mary (Luke 1:26-38), her Visitation to Elizabeth (1:39-56), and Jesus' birth and infancy (2:7,16; Matthew 2:11), one other biblical scene depicting the mother of Jesus is especially prominent in the history of Christian art: Jesus' death on the cross (John 19:25-27).

Alone among the evangelists, it is John who informs us that "standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to his mother, 'Woman, behold, your son!' Then he said to the disciple, 'Behold, your mother!' And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home" (ESV).

Jesus of Nazareth, is the central figure of Christianity, whom the teachings of most Christian denominations hold to be the Son of God. Christianity regards Jesus as the awaited Messiah (or "Christ") of the Old Testament and refers to him as Jesus Christ, a name that is also used in non-Christian contexts.

Virtually all modern scholars of antiquity agree that Jesus existed historically, although the quest for the historical Jesus has produced little agreement on the historical reliability of the Gospels and on how closely the biblical Jesus reflects the historical Jesus. Most scholars agree that Jesus was a Jewish rabbi from Galilee who preached his message orally, was baptized by John the Baptist, and was crucified in Jerusalem on the orders of the Roman prefect, Pontius Pilate. Scholars have constructed various portraits of the historical Jesus, which often depict him as having one or more of the following roles: the leader of an apocalyptic movement, Messiah, a charismatic healer, a sage and philosopher, or an egalitarian social reformer. Scholars have correlated the New Testament accounts with non-Christian historical records to arrive at an estimated chronology of Jesus' life. The most widely used calendar era in the world (abbreviated as "AD", alternatively referred to as "CE"), counts from a medieval estimate of the birth year of Jesus.

Christians believe that Jesus has a "unique significance" in the world. Christian doctrines include the beliefs that Jesus was conceived by the Holy Spirit, was born of a virgin, performed miracles, founded the Church, died by crucifixion as a sacrifice to achieve atonement, rose from the dead, and ascended into heaven, whence he will return. The great majority of Christians worship Jesus as the incarnation of God the Son, the second of threepersons of a Divine Trinity. A few Christian groups reject Trinitarianism, wholly or partly, as non-scriptural.
