ARMY INSTITUTE OF LAW, MOHALI

AIL ECO CLUB

On the auspicious occasion of India's 77th Independence Day, Army Institute of Law organized a vibrant and patriotic celebration filled with speeches, songs, poetry, and environmental initiatives. The event was hosted by AIL ECO CLUB and it brought together students and staff to celebrate the spirit of freedom and unity.

The ceremony began with the unfurling of the flag by the Principal accompanied by the singing of the national anthem. This moment symbolized our respect and love for the country.

Dr. Tejinder Kaur, delivered an inspiring speech highlighting the significance of Independence Day and the values it represents. Her words encouraged students to strive for a better India.

- Sakshi, a second-year student, mesmerized the audience with her heartfelt poem about Independence Day, reflecting on the sacrifices made by our freedom fighters.

- Sakshi from the first year, shared her thoughts on the importance of Independence Day and its relevance in today's world, emphasizing the need for unity and progress.

A group of talented students - Aryaman (5th year), Himanshi (3rd year), Sanket (2nd year), Kashish (2nd year), and Sayuri (1st year) - took the stage to sing a medley of patriotic songs, filling the atmosphere with patriotic fervor.

The event also featured the introduction of our institution's Environment Club, which aims to promote environmental awareness and sustainable practices among students.

- Palavi Jasrotia (2nd year) presented a soulful Hindi poem, advocating for environmental conservation and the protection of our natural resources.

- Satwinder (2nd year) followed with a heartfelt Punjabi poem, stressing the importance of preserving our rich cultural heritage.

A spectacular dance performance on a patriotic song was executed by a talented group of students, including Vaishnavi, Shagun, Samya, Vanni, and Apoorva, all from the second year. Their energetic and synchronized performance left the audience enthralled.

As a commitment to a greener future, a number of saplings were planted on the institution's premises. This initiative aimed to instill a sense of environmental responsibility in our students.

The Independence Day celebration at Army Institute of Law was a resounding success, encapsulating the spirit of patriotism, unity, and environmental responsibility. It left an indelible mark on the hearts and minds of all participants, reminding us of the importance of our nation's freedom and our duty to protect and preserve it.
