

Report on “Law in a Minute” Activity Conducted by the AIL Centre for Personal Laws (ACPL)

Date: 9th October 2025

Time: 2:30 PM

Venue: Classroom No. 1

The AIL Centre for Personal Laws (ACPL) organized an interactive and intellectually stimulating activity titled “Law in a Minute” on 9th October 2025 at 2:30 PM in Classroom No. 1. The session was conducted under the guidance and supervision of the Faculty Coordinators, Dr. Alamdeep Kaur and Dr. Indu Bala.

The primary objective of the activity was to assess and enhance the students’ ability to think critically and articulate their perspectives on various aspects of personal laws within a limited time frame. Each participant was allotted a random chit bearing a topic related to personal laws and was required to express their views within one minute. Illustrative topics included questions such as “Marriage – A Contract or a Sacrosanct Union?”, which prompted insightful reflections on the intersection of legal principles and social customs.

The following students actively participated in the event:

- Yuvika (2nd Year)
- Aastha (1st Year)
- Fatima (2nd Year)
- Arvan (3rd Year)
- Nandini (1st Year)
- Nitya (1st Year)
- Aaniya Guleria (1st Year)
- Khushpreet Kaur (1st Year)
- Aastha (1st Year)
- Aanika (1st Year)

The participants exhibited commendable spontaneity, clarity of thought, and a sound understanding of the subject matter. Their brief yet impactful presentations reflected their analytical acumen and growing interest in the study of personal laws. To encourage active engagement, tokens of appreciation in the form of chocolates were distributed to both participants and audience members, fostering a spirit of enthusiasm and inclusivity.

The Faculty Coordinators, Dr. Alamdeep Kaur and Dr. Indu Bala, appreciated the students' participation and the members of ACPL for their efforts in conceptualizing and executing such a creative and educative initiative. The activity concluded with a vote of thanks and a group photograph, marking the end of an enriching and well-received session.
